The Application of Steam Power to Dentistry.

And in making this announcement, I desire, also, to put upon record, as a matter of fact, that I am the first operator in the world who has put into practical use, steam power in dentistry. For the past two months I have used it daily in every operation I have performed, and even excessively timid patients are delighted and charmed with the ease and absolute perfection with which it performs its labor. Out of the many who have had operations performed by its aid, there has never been one, not a single one, who has expressed a preference for the old hand methods; but upon the contrary, each one has been marked and profuse in their praise of this, the latest application of steam power. Very much might be said in its commendation, but the limits of an advertisement forbid, suffice it to say realizing the facts fully, that were I to recommend anything in my practice which did not meet the approbation of my patients, it would be absolutely fatal to me, yet, so thoroughly does this meet the wishes of all my patients, as well as myself, that I feel warranted in giving it a hearty and emphatic endorsement as the nearest approach to perfection which can possibly be imagined. The superiority of its work is beyond all comparison. Having understood that a certain interested party in this city is crying out "danger from explosion" to his patients, I desire to call attention to the following card from Mr. Sullivan, prefacing it with the remark that I never desire to use over thirty pounds steam pressure which every patient can see by the gauge for themselves. After reading this card, let all such parties forever hold their peace. Since it will be seen that the boiler has been constructed to carry 500—five hundred—pounds pressure per square inch, whereas, I use but 30—thirty.

J. FREDERICK BABCOCK, D. D. S.,
Dentist and Practitioner of Oral Surgery, Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, Kenduskeag Block, Bangor, Me.

CARD.

This is to certify that I, Daniel Sullivan of Bangor, Steam Boiler Manufacturer, have just completed to the order of Dr. J. F. Babcock, one of my latent upright Tubular Steam Boilers made with the special intent and purpose of having it so exceedingly safe and strong as to stand under ordinary every day usage, if required, 500 pounds pressure per square inch, and I hereby guarantee that its strength is such as to safely stand a much greater pressure if necessary, than the said 500 pounds per square inch.

(Signed) DANIEL SULLIVAN.

Prospectus for 1874,

Seventh Year.

The Aldine,

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The wood-cuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscriber to THE ALDINE will, at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasures and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thomas Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountains, New Hampshire, the other gives The Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves is a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates and are in size (12x16) and appearance exact fac similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscriber's of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 20th, 1873.

MESSRS JAMES SUTTON & CO.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the proofs in color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representations by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,
(Signed,) THOS. MORAN

These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this, they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the pride they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscriber should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14x20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free!

For 50 cents extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtained only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

THE VIRGINIUS.

HER FRAUDULENT USE OF THE FLAG—OPINION OF ATTORNEY GENERAL WILLIAMS

The following is the full text of the opinion of Attorney General Williams in the Virginius case:

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 17, 1873.

Hon. Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State:

SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th inst., submitting to me a large number of documents and depositions, and asking for my opinion as to whether or not the Virginius at the time of her capture by the Spanish man of war Tornado, was entitled to carry the flag of the United States, and whether or not she was carrying it improperly and without right at that time. These questions arise under the protocol of the 29th ult., between the Spanish Minister and the Secretary of State, in which, among other things, it is agreed that on the 25th inst., Spain shall salute the flag of the United States. But it is further provided that if Spain shall prove to the satisfaction of the United States that the Virginius was not entitled to carry the flag of the United States, and was carrying it at the time of the capture without right and improperly, the salute will be spontaneously dispensed with, as in such case not being necessarily requirable; but the United States will expect in such case a disclaimer of the intent of indignity to its flag in the act which was committed. Section 1 of the act of Dec. 31, 1792, provides that ships or vessels registered pursuant to such act, and no other, except such as shall be duly qualified according to law for carrying on the coasting trade, and denominated or deemed ships or vessels of the United States, shall be entitled to the benefits and privileges appertaining to such ships. Section 4 of the same act provides for an oath by which, among other things, to obtain the registry of a vessel the owner is required to swear that there is not a subject or citizen of any foreign Prince or State, directly or indirectly, by way of trust, confidence or otherwise, interested in such ship or vessel, or in the profits or issues thereof. Obviously, therefore, no vessel in which a foreigner is, directly or indirectly, interested, is entitled to a United States register, and if one is obtained by a false oath as to that point, and the fact is established that the vessel is owned, or partly owned, by foreigners, she cannot be deemed a vessel of the United States, or entitled to the benefits or privileges appertaining to such vessels. The Virginius was registered in New York on the 26th of September, 1870, in the name of Patterson, who made oath as required by law, but the depositions submitted abundantly show that in fact Patterson was not the owner at that time, but that the vessel was the property of certain Cuban citizens in New York, who furnished the necessary funds for her purchase. J. E. Shepherd, who commanded said vessel when she left New York with a certificate of her register in the name of Patterson, testified positively that he entered into an agreement to command said vessel at an interview between Quesada, Mora, Patterson and others, in which it was distinctly understood that the Virginius belonged to Quesada, Mora, and other Cubans, and that said Mora exhibited to him receipts for the purchase money and for the repairs and supplies upon said steamer, and explained to him how the said funds were raised among the Cubans in New York. Adolpho Varona, who was the Secretary of the Cuban Mission in New York at the time the Virginius was purchased, and afterward sailed in her as Quesada's chief of staff, testified that he was acquainted with all the details of the transactions, and knows that the Virginius was purchased with the funds of the Cubans, and with the understanding and arrangement that Patterson should appear as the nominal owner because foreigners could not obtain a United States register for the vessel. Francis Bowen, Chas Smith, Edward Greenwood, John McCann, Matthew Murphy, Ambrose Rawlings, Thomas Gallagher, John Furlong, Thomas Anderson, and Geo. W. Miller, who were employed upon the Virginius in various capacities after she was registered in the name of Patterson, testify clearly to the effect that they were informed and understood while they were upon the vessel that she belonged to Quesada and the Cubans represented by him, and that he navigated, controlled, and used such vessel in all respects as though it was his property. Nothing appears to weaken the force of this testimony, though the witnesses were generally subjected to cross-examination, but on the contrary, all the circumstances of the case tend to its corroboration. With the oath for registry the statute requires a bond to be given, signed by the owner, Captain, and one or more sureties, but there were no sureties upon the bond given by Patterson and Shepherd. Pains have been taken to ascertain if there was any insurance upon the vessel, but nothing of the kind has been found, and Quesada, Varona, and the other Cubans who took passage upon the Virginius, instead of going on board at the wharf in the usual way, went aboard off a [illegible] after the vessel had left the harbor of New York. I cannot do otherwise than to hold upon this evidence that Patterson's oaths were false, and that the register obtained in his name was a fraud upon the Navigation laws of the United States. As to the question to be what appears to [illegible] to the intent of the protocol, whether or not the Virginius at the time of her capture, had a right, as against the United States, to carry the American flag, I am of the opinion that she had no such right, because she had not been registered according to law, but I am also of the opinion that she was as much exempt from interference on the high seas by another power on that ground as though she had been lawfully registered. Spain, no doubt, has a right to capture a vessel with an American register and carrying the American flag, found in her own waters assisting or endeavoring to assist the insurrection in Cuba, but she has no right to capture such a vessel on the high seas upon an apprehension that in violation of the Neutrality or Navigation laws of the United States, she was on her way to assist the said rebellion. Spain may defend her territory and her people from the hostile attack of what is, or appears to be, an American vessel, but she has no jurisdiction whatever over the question as to whether or not such vessel is on the high seas in violation of any law of the United States. Spain cannot rightfully raise that question as to the Virginius, but the United States may, and as I understand the protocol, they have agreed to do it; and, governed by that agreement, and without admitting that Spain would otherwise have any interest in the question, I decide that the Virginius, at the time of her capture, was without right and improperly carrying the American flag.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) GEO. H. WILLIAMS,
Attorney General.

The Lewiston Journal says the sensation of Franklin county for Christmas week, is a double wedding to occur at Christmas. The guests bidden are so numerous that the entire hotel, and all the livery teams have been engaged for the occasion. A Pullman Palace car has been chartered for the use of the bridal party who are to attend their tour to Washington.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE

The Universalists in Waterville talk of sustaining regular preaching again in the spring.

The new M. E. parsonage in Gardiner, which is now erecting, will cost $4000.

The Congregational society at New Gloucester is still without a pastor.

Rev. Mr. Andrews has dissolved his connection with the Baptist church in Alfred.

The new Congregational house of worship at Fort Fairfield, is rapidly approaching completion.

The new Baptist church at North Vassalboro will be dedicated about the seventh of next month.

The Congregational church edifice in Waldoboro is to be altered and thoroughly repaired.

In Kennebunk, several have been converted, and joined the M. E. church. Three were baptized last Sabbath.

By Christmas it is expected that the Free Will Baptist church in Cape Elizabeth will be ready for occupancy.

Last Thursday the Freewill Baptist Society in Starks made a donation party for the benefit of Rev. Otis Andrews.

Rev. E. S. Beard, formerly of Warren, has settled over the First Congregational church in Brooklyn, Conn.

Rev. W. A. Start, formerly of this State, is to become one of the editors of the "New Covenant," the Universalist paper at Chicago.

Nine persons were baptized at the Methodist church at North Monmouth, last Sabbath. These were converts from the recent revival.

Many of the children in the Free Baptist Sunday School in Alva have recently been converted and received the ordinance of baptism.

The Congregational church and parish in Bluehill are preparing for a centennial celebration upon the 31st of December and 1st of January.

The church in Bridgton will be dedicated New Year's. Rev. John H. Gurney, pastor of the Congregational church in Foxcroft, will preach the dedication sermon.

There is a good religious interest at Somerset Mills, under the labors of Rev. E. Gerry, jr. Several, of late, have been converted.—Five rose for prayers last Sabbath evening.

During the past year twelve persons have been received into the Baptist church in Parkman, by baptism, and four by letter, the whole number at present being fifty-five.

Last Thursday, there was a donation party for the benefit of Rev. Otis Andrews of the Free Baptist church in Starks, and the people fell deep down in their pockets.

Rev. Dr. Estes and wife celebrated the 25th anniversary of their marriage at the parsonage of the Baptist church on Paris Hill, last Thursday evening. The gifts were substantial and numerous.

The report that Rev. T. S. Jones of the High street Christian Church, Skowhegan, has accepted a call from a church in Dayton, Ohio, was not true, as he has not yet decided to leave Skowhegan.

A "round party" was given at the parsonage by the parishioners and friends of Rev. S. W. Pearson, in Lyman, on the evening of the 15th inst. Money and a great variety of useful articles were presented.

Rev. J. W. Carr, Free Baptist, recently of Madison Center, has removed to Presque Isle and will preach in that place, Fort Fairfield and the adjoining town during the ensuing year.

The old Methodist meeting-house, at Woodford's Corner, after being closed for two years, has now been opened for temperance meetings, debates and Sunday evening prayer meetings.

One hundred of the friends of Rev. Mr. Fannie Roberts, pastor of the Universalist church in Kittery, recently gave that lady a donation party, leaving behind them money to the amount of $100.

Rev. Mr. Bristow, Congregational, at preaches in a neat little church at Sherman Mills.—Rev. Mr. Bennett, Methodist, preaches once in four weeks, at Sherman Road. Rev. Mr. Colton, who preaches at Winn, preaches once in four weeks at Sherman Road.

On Friday last the Universalists and other friends, of North Turner and vicinity, enjoyed a sleigh-ride to Turner village, and had a donation party at the house of Rev. Mr. Record, who had been preaching very acceptably in North Turner during the past summer.

The Court St. Baptist Church, Auburn, last Sunday, made trial of the new system of Sunday services, with very favorable results. At 10.30 A. M., the Sunday School assembled. There was prayer by the pastor and spirited singing. At the close of the lesson, for which a full hour was taken, the pastor applied the teachings in an address of five or six minutes. In the afternoon was a sermon and a prayer meeting in the evening. A similar system of service has been in successful operation at Park Street M. E. Church in Lewiston, for some time.

RETRENCHMENT AT ALL EVENTS.

[From the Boston Journal.]

It is said that since Congress manifested a firm determination to have the estimates and the expenses of the Government cut down, some officials have discovered that the needs of the Treasury are not quite so urgent as was supposed, and that a little increase of taxation with a suitable loan, will tide us over the exigency. Nothing like that kind of view will be accepted. To make both ends meet with any satisfaction to the people, the Treasury must have the national expenses reduced before there is any thought of adding to the still heavy burdens of taxation. But, more than that, the idea has got abroad that retrenchment is demanded any way—that since the war, abuses of various kinds, little leaks that have swollen into positive extravagance, have been gaining ground in the various departments of the public service, which it is a good time now to look into and to abate.

Here, for instance, is the case of the Attorney General's "wagon," which, according to our Washington correspondent, has been provided for out of the mysterious "contingent fund" of the Department of Justice, at a cost of $1000. Rather remarkable wagon that. But it is surmised that it is e pluribus unum, as the American flag says, or one of many. A recent committee of investigation authorized by Congress is said to have brought to light some instructive facts of a similar nature. The Treasury horses in Washington cost $700 per annum for their shoeing and $[illegible]00 for their hay, although it is stated that four horses will answer to do the work. Allowing that that point is not exactly clear, can it be possible that two express wagons should cost, as the committee say they do, $5000 for one year's repairs, one item of repair alone amounting to $[illegible]00? That break must have been a curiosity. In short, to follow through the other items it appears that the expenses of these four horses and two wagons accounted for show an outlay of $[illegible]1,000. It appears, also, that of the contingent fund $9000 went for carpets, $3000 for ice and $15,000 for gas. The hypothesis recorded by some curious correspondent that many officials have no private gas and ice bills to settle, we pass over with the thought that the Attorney General's "wagon" furnishes food enough for reflection on such matters.

The only reason why we refer to these developments at all is that they are pertinent to the popular demand for retrenchment at this time. Every once in a while it is needful that the torch of investigation should be carried through all the Departments of the Government as every business man finds it necessary to avail himself of a leisure season to overhaul his books and papers, weed out the useless accretions, correct what has been going amiss and square up matters generally.—It is not only a good time to perform a national service of this kind, but it is absolutely demanded by the public exigency. The Treasury calls for money, it is a hard business season among the people, just the time when it would be agreeable to have taxation lightened instead of increased. The first duty therefore is to cut down the national expenses to the lowest degree consistent with the efficiency of the Government at all points. And when—which we believe to be the case—that can be done with the decided improvement of official service and official life, as well as with rendering timely relief to the people, it ought to be resorted to promptly and carried out faithfully.

MISS DICKINSON.

We presume that Miss Anna E. Dickinson would be the last person to claim any leniency or criticism on account of her sex, as her abilities certainly place her beyond the need of flattery, but common courtesy should be sufficient to shield a lady from such coarse personalities as those which the Commercial substituted for a report of her lecture in this city. One would hardly suppose that a man could resort to so cowardly a method of attack as by devoting a column to spiteful allusions to her sex, while entirely suppressing what the lecturer said. Our contemporary may be unusually qualified to judge of the merits of a public speaker, but many of the most influential and fastidious journals of the country have felt justified in speaking very highly of Miss Dickinson as a lecturer, and it is barely possible that her Bangor critic lacks judgment as well as good manners. The absurdity of attempting to ridicule abilities which have been recognized for successive years by the largest audiences all over the country is readily apparent, and in addition to the tributes offered Miss Dickinson by the press and distinguished persons of her own land, we will cite the opinion expressed by an eminent foreigner. A few years ago, at the close of an address by this talented young lady in Boston the eloquent English orator and philanthropist, George Thompson, was called to the stand, when he spoke of her as follows:

My Friends:—If one unaccustomed to public speaking is ever placed in an embarrassing position it is when he is called upon, as I am now, to address an audience that has been so charmed and highly excited by such eloquence as that which it has been your privilege and my privilege to listen to to-night. Shakespeare says: "As when some actor who has crossed the stage retires, the eye looks listlessly to see who follows next," and so I come before you to-night. I have nothing to address to you to-night, nothing. I have been spell bound. America, be proud of your daughter! Were she my countrywoman, I should be proud of my country for her sake. Appreciate her, reward her by following her counsels. I must confess, long accustomed as I have been to public meetings, and hearing the best eloquence on either side of the Atlantic, and to hearing those who are esteemed of our most gifted men in Parliament, I have listened to no speech which, for its pathos, its argument, its satire, its eloquence, its humor, its sarcasm, and its well directed denunciations, has ever surpassed that we have heard to-night.

It is said that immediately after the recess, a resolution will be introduced, requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to appear in the House of Representatives and personally explain his views, in accordance with the old law of 1789. Should the House insist upon the resolution, the novel sight will be presented for the first time in our history, of a Cabinet officer personally explaining his views to the representatives of the people, and running the gauntlet of a cross-examination. The law above referred to prescribes that, among other duties it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to make a report, and give information to either house of the Legislature in person or writing, as may be required, respecting all matters referred to him by the House of Representatives, or which shall appertain to his office. The above law was approved by the President at Washington, September 2, 1789, and may be found on page 650 of the Statutes at Large.

HORRIBLE MURDER IN BOSTON. One of the most horrible murders ever perpetrated in Boston occurred in the house No. 9 Province court shortly before one o'clock Thursday morning. At about a quarter to one o'clock Mr. Milliken, living on Province court, had his attention called to stifled cries proceeding from the room on the first floor of the house mentioned, used by Joseph G. Hegner, a German, as a locksmith's shop. The cries continuing, he called the attention of Officers Hanscombe and Wilson, who, on arriving at the house found the cries had ceased, but could distinctly hear a heavy thud, as if some one was at work with an axe. They burst open the doors, and found Anton Hittle, a man employed by Hegner, on the floor, with his head crushed in several places, and Hegner standing over him with a large hatchet in his hand. Hegner was at once arrested. The body of Hittle was still warm, but on the return of the officers after locking the murderer up, life was extinct.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Judge Hagar, who has been chosen United States Senator from California for the short term is a Democrat. He went from New Jersey, in the Legislature of which State he served a term. He has been several terms a State Senator from San Francisco, in which city he was, at one time a judge of the District Court.

A Portland correspondent of the Boston Advertiser, discussing the organization of the Legislature, etc. says: "For State Treasurer it is generally thought that the Hon. S. C. Hatch of Bangor stands the best chance. The Hon. Frederick Robie of Gorham is reported not to be pushing his claims." The same writer says that the probabilities favor the election of S. T. Plummer, Esq., of Bangor, as assistant clerk of the House.

It is said that at a meeting of the Civil Service Commission to be held some time in January a proposition will be discussed to cause the examination of all those holding clerkships or other positions in the departments and who were appointed before the Civil Service rules were adopted. It is asserted that while now appointees are required to give proof of their ability, there are hundreds now in the departments appointed on political grounds who are unfit for the positions they hold.

For President of the Senate, there are two candidates: Hon. J. E. Butler of York, and Hon. H. H. Burgess of Cumberland, while certain parties who have interests, believing that it is impossible to defeat Mr. Butler with Mr. Burgess, since it is conceded that the State will not organize its entire Legislature with officers from the same precise locality are endeavoring to bring forward a third candidate in the person of Hon. E. F. Webb of Kennebec, to draw enough off from Mr. Butler to defeat him. We are authorized by Mr. Webb to state that he supports, and shall vote for Mr. Butler, and will not allow his name to be used in any way against him.—[Portland Journal.

Mr. Burgess desires us to state that with relation to the above, it is by no means necessary to concede that the presiding officers of both branches will not be chosen from the same "precise locality." This remains to be proved. The two candidates for the presidency of the Senate, do not reside at sufficient distance apart to make the question of locality alone of great importance. Both reside in the extreme western portion of the State, both are in the same Congressional District, their residences are only fifteen miles apart, and their local interests must be quite similar. As for the movement said to be made "by certain parties having interests" in favor of Mr. Webb of Kennebec, Mr. Burgess states that its existence is entirely unknown to him, the only information he has of it having come from the editor of the Journal.—[Portland Press.

BRIDGE AT BUCKSPORT AGAIN.

BANGOR, Dec. 26th, 1873.

Editor of the Whig & Courier:

Penobscot's communication hardly calls for any reply, its own crudities being its sufficient refutation. He would get rid of the threatened bridge either by building the road from Calais by the way of Princeton and Passadumkeag, or by carrying it through the sky. Both are equally absurd. As to the first, who wants it, what would it be good for and who will pay for it? And if built how would it affect the Shore Line any how? And yet your contributor would have this city put in $300,000 to secure it, when the Shore Line ask only one half that amount. As to the latter plan of sending the cars over the tops of masts, it is not only impracticable, but no Legislature would entertain the proposition for a moment. No, when the road is built to Bucksport and a bridge demanded, it will go on a level grade, and at an expense not exceeding other bridges already built in Maine. The cost of building a railroad from Calais, about $2,000,000, is paraded as a strong argument against the Shore Line road being built. Well! in that case we need not fear a bridge and the gentleman's article is in that contingency all out of place and uncalled for. But how long such an expenditure will stand in the way of such a people for such an enterprise, let the whole history of railroading answer. The building of the road in the very near future is a fixed fact and the only question now is where shall be its western terminus? Shall it be at Bangor or twenty miles away, carrying with it the traffic and travel of the Eastern counties, besides the safe and easy navigation of our noble river.

The question of the desirableness of the road to our city I do not propose now to discuss. That may be regarded as a foregone one. Whether we wish connection with a large territory containing 50,000 enterprising souls, $[illegible],000,000 of wealth and $[illegible],000,000 or $1,000,000 of annual trade, is a question that is susceptible of only one answer. Whether our city in its municipal capacity or our citizens will make the effort necessary to secure it—that is the only question now before us. The bridge at Bucksport is presented as one of the facts bearing upon the vote.

A. W. P.

THE INSANE HOSPITAL ACCOUNTS. The Kennebec Journal says: "The Committee of the Executive Council, who have been examining into the affairs of the Insane Hospital, have closed their labors and made their report to the Governor and Council. The investigation has been concerning the management and finances, and has been thorough and exhaustive. The examination covers a period of three years in the management of the institution.

The Committee find some irregularities in the accounts of the Steward and Treasurer, Captain W. E. Leighton, and recommend a change in those offices, and also of the person who has charge of the farm. The State loses nothing by the irregularities. There seems to have been no intention to defraud, but the irregularities are due rather to inexperience in doing business and a slack method of keeping books. Several errors that were detected and shown to the Steward by the Committee, were readily acknowledged and corrected. This, so far as we are informed, is a fair statement—that while there has been no intentional wrong doing, there has been an exhibition of carelessness that is hardly pardonable in a gentleman occupying so responsible a position. Capt. Leighton sent in his resignation to the Board of Trustees some three weeks since.

The Investigating Committee also recommend several changes in the methods of keeping the Hospital accounts, and in the manner of making the quarterly settlements."

The Belfast Journal is not deterred by political opposition from doing justice to Mr. Hale's course in the salary debate, as follows:

Mr. Hale, the representative of this district in Congress, battled manfully for the right in this matter, and is entitled to the thanks of the people although he failed. We cannot be suspected of any party predilection for this gentleman, and we feel we should do less than justice to him if we failed to acknowledge his services for the right on this important question.

The N. Y. Evening Post's Washington special says:—"It is now quite certain that if the estimates are reduced as proposed, and other contemplated reductions in the Government expenses are made, the increased taxation will not be necessary. Secretary Richardson favors the abolition of the sinking fund for one year, or until the revenues increase. This would give about thirty million dollars to the Treasury, which, together with the reductions in the estimates, will be money enough for the Treasury without resorting to increased taxation."

FROM AUGUSTA

HOSPITAL TRUSTEE APPOINTED

AUGUSTA, Dec. 25

The Governor has nominated John W Chase of Augusta Trustee of the Insane Hospital vice W B Lapham, whose term expires on the 30th

The appointment of Mr Chase is a very excellent one He is a leading merchant of the city which he has represented in the Legislature is an active and sharp business man and the interests of the State will be well guarded under his supervision

In justice to Dr Lapham it may be proper to add that the irregularities of the Treasurer of the Insane Hospital has nothing to do with Mr Chase's appointment as Dr Lapham was not a candidate of reappointment

PENNSYLVANIA

THE MILLS—CARPET WEAVERS OUT OF WORK

PHILADELPHIA Dec. 26 Most of the cotton and woolen factories are in full operation at reduced wages The carpet factories, with very few exceptions, are all closed, owing principally to the reduction in the price of weaving made by the manufacturers of two cents per yard The manufacturers as a general thing say the prices of carpets have been reduced so much and the sales are so slow, that they are not very anxious to resume operations, even though the weavers should agree to work at the proposed reduction

FROM KEY WEST

ARRIVALS FROM SANTIAGO

NEW YORK, Dec 26 A Key West despatch reports the arrival there of the U S steamer Kansas, she having left Santiago de Cuba on Sunday The Canandaigua arrived at Santiago on Friday and is now the only U S ship in that port. The officers of the Kansas report that they were well treated ashore, the soldiers and sailors being careful to observe the salute There are two regiments at Santiago, one Cuban and the other Volunteers. The former appear friendly and conciliatory, and the latter insolent and opposed to every concession Several vessels have been driven ashore near Key West during a storm but reliable particulars are unattainable.

The municipal authorities of Madrid have been suspended from office

CUBA.

SERIOUS DROUGHT.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26. Mail advices from Cuba are that a great drought prevails in the neighborhood of Sagua la Grande and the crops of corn, rice and vegetables are completely lost. It will also materially influence the crops of the sugar estates that have no cane left over from last year as the growth of rattoons and newly planted cane has been too much retarded.

NEWSPAPERS.

A letter from Havana states that the reason for the demise of the Republican journals there recently, is the revival of the old law of 1834, requiring publishers to deposit $500 for licenses.

ALLEGED INCENDIARY CASE Freeman R Miles of Hudson, was brought to this city Thursday, by Deputy Sheriff Webber of that place on a complaint charging him with burning, Wednesday evening, the house in which he lived, owned by Mr. Henry M Beals The case came up for hearing in the Police Court yesterday, and from the testimony given our reporter sifted out the following Miles had returned from this city drunk, on Wednesday, and was engaged in a row with his wife which attracted the attention of neighbors, and one went for an officer to arrest him, and before his return the fire broke out Miss Lyshon testified that she saw fire shoot up from the hay which had been piled or stacked against a shed joining the house and was near enough to see and hear Miles, who said 'Burn, d—n you, burn ' Mrs. Miles then came out of the house and said, My God, Freem, will you burn up all we've got! The fire soon destroyed the dwelling, all efforts of the neighbors being unavailing to extinguish it. The house, as Miles says, was owned by one Reeves, who agreed to let him have it if he (Miles) would pay a debt of Reeves' amounting to $30 to Beals, and pay him the balance, when Beals would give him a title to the property which he held as security for the $30 Mrs Miles swore that the house was burned by the tipping over and breaking of a lamp on a table near the hay, which, judging by her statement, must have formed one end or side of the room. After the testimony was all taken the case was submitted without argument and Miles was held in the sum of $5,000 for his appearance at the February term of the S J Court. Col. Hutchings, County Attorney, appeared for the State, and Chapman and Donigan for respondent.

BANGOR POLICE COURT

BEFORE JUDGE GOODENOW.

Friday, Dec. 26th State vs. James Leary, drunkenness; sent to jail for thirty days.

State vs Melvin Frost, Frank Judkins and Henry Dow, drunkenness, fined $3 and costs, each

The New York Evening Post expresses the opinion that Tweed will be found among the missing some fine morning, and somebody will be the richer by a handsome sum. It adds, "Such is our prediction."

The Boston Globe says. "While the United States show a balance of trade in their favor for the calendar year, Great Britain, according to the data before us, exhibits a deficiency of over $400,000,000 in the trade balance—an amount nearly equal to the entire exports of this country. From the fact that a dollar in Great Britain means just what it says, it would seem that the political economists of that country do not believe in the doctrine preached in the United States, that a nation cannot maintain specie payments unless its exports balance evenly with its imports. The balance of trade against Great Britain represents an immense credit, the like of which would seem appalling to the United States, but British statesmen argue rightly, that commerce regulates itself

CHRISTMAS IN BANGOR.

"The finest day of the season," everybody said, and everybody was right, for the air was mild, and the sky, except for an hour or two, clear and sunny The streets were thronged with people during the forenoon, but almost completely deserted during the dinner hour, and for some time after, showing that the Christmas dinner has become an institution not to be neglected The sleighing was capital, and there were on the streets teams of every description, from a gay span drawing a velvet-lined sleigh, to a woods pung hauled by an ancient horse that had suffered in the service enough to entitle him to retirement and a pension The Hampden road was well worth seeing, it being filled nearly all day with a double line of fine turnouts, extending from the Bangor House as far as the eye could reach Fortunately no accidents of any degree of seriousness marred the delight of this sleighing carnival, and drivers, riding parties and stable keepers were all happy

CHURCH SERVICES

High Mass was celebrated at St John's Catholic church by Rev Fathers Clement and Antonio, and at St Mary's by Rev Father Murphy, at 5 o'clock in the morning, and notwithstanding the hour was so early, there was a very large attendance at each The churches were very handsomely decorated with flowers and evergreens, and the music was most excellent

Rarely has the Christmas festival been more appropriately kept at St John's Episcopal church than the present year The church was dressed simply, yet effectively, with evergreens and bannerets, the latter displaying the titles given our Lord in Holy Scripture The music by the surpliced choir was finely rendered, and especially was this true of the two beautiful carols introduced, the first sung as a semi chorus in which the voices of Masters Alden, Kent Cutter and Margesson rang out brightly, well balanced by Masters Morison and and Stickney, alti, and Messrs Files and Clergue tenor and basso the second sung as a duet by Masters Margesson and Stickney The rector delivered an appropriate sermon from the words, 'Emmanuel, God with us

CHRISTMAS FESTIVALS

were abundant during the day and evening We have already made mention of those which occurred at the Central Congregational and First Methodist churches on the preceding evening, when the lofty and well fruited trees were despoiled of their rich burdens for the benefit of the expectant members of the Sabbath schools and societies

Yesterday morning hundreds of bright eyes opened wide to discover the treasures which bursting stockings and loaded trees had in store for the children, and in nearly every house there was a carnival, enjoyed fully as much, we doubt not, by the parents and friends who furnished the gifts, as by the youngsters who received them But we must not linger on this fruitful theme, and will turn to occasions of a more public nature

AT THE CHILDREN'S HOME,

the large family of little ones who have no relatives to send them presents, were all remembered Thursday afternoon when the usual distribution took place from the fine tree, which as well as many of the gifts, was furnished by Mr and Mrs G W Merrill Other kind friends gave generously, and none of the children were neglected

In the evening a festival took place

AT THE FIRST PARISH CHURCH

the distribution of gifts being preceded by a collation The church was finely decorated, and the tree richly lighted and loaded with articles of ornament and use almost without number Some of the gifts were very costly, and many were productive of great amusement as they were delivered to the recipients.

AT TEMPERANCE HALL

in the evening the members of Bangor Division, No 14, Sons of Temperance, celebrated the sixteenth anniversary of the organization Music and short, pithy and witty speeches made up the mental treat of the occasion, and a fine tree, heavily laden with gifts, furnished an unstinted fund of amusement and delight as its "fruit was plucked and distributed

AT THE Q C D A ROOMS,

in Kenduskeag block, the active and honorary members of the Queen City Dramatic Association held a reunion and festival, and in their parlor had a large tree none of the gifts on which by previous agreement, cost more than 25 cents Of course there was no end of fun, and the handsomely furnished and decorated rooms rang with gaiety until a late hour, a social dance and supper closing the festivities

THE MASQUERADE BALL

which came off in Music Hall in the evening was a very brilliant affair The costumes of the maskers were some of the finest ever worn in the city, and the galleries were filled with spectators enjoying the scene. Andrews orchestra furnished the music and Johnson the supper, and altogether the occasion was very enjoyable occurred in many households, where several families combined and met to hang their gifts on one tree, and in several boarding houses the boarders effected a similar arrangement. At Mrs Powers', on Hammond st, there was quite a large gathering, a fine tree and an abundance of presents. An incident of the evening was the presentation to that lady of a handsome marble clock from her boarders, accompanied by the following neat lines written by the young daughter of a gentleman living in the house

HOME FESTIVALS

Santa Claus told me to say
He has come with Christmas day,
And your friends all wish to prove
To you their good will and love
Tick tock, Tick tock
— I am Mrs Powers clock,
With unwearied voice will I
Tick the hours and moments by

When the East is growing red,
And the folks are snug in bed,
This clock very soon will tell
When its time to ring the bell
Tick tock, tick tock,
I am Mrs. Powers clock,
With unwearied voice will I
Tick the hours and moments by

If some one is very late,
And, tis nearly half past eight,
With reproach I ll point the time,
Ticking out my endless rhyme—
Tick tock, tick tock,
I am Mrs. Powers' clock
With unwearied voice will I
Tick the hours and moments by

Wind me up, and keep me free
From all dust, and I will be Faithful through the years to come
An adornment to your home.
Tick tock, tick tock
I am Mrs. Powers' clock,
With unwearied voice will I
Tick the hours and moments by

AT EAST BANGOR

the Sabbath School had a festival in the meeting house, and after the completion of a well arranged programme of dialogues, recitations and music, the presents were distributed from a fine tree. Everybody connected with the school, we are told, received a gift, and the Superintendent, Mr. J. F. Jordan, was presented with a handsome buffalo sleigh-robe.

AT EXETER,

our correspondent writes, Holy Trinity Mission held a festival in the evening, at the high school house, which was beautifully decorated and filled with people. An address was delivered by the Rector, Rev. Richard Price, followed by readings, declamations and music, and the distribution of presents from the tree, and the entertainment closed with a free collation.

Gov. Booth, of California, was born in Salem, Indiana, where a salute of one hundred guns was fired in honor of his election to the United States Senate

PLACES

BY T. G. A.

In the heart's album there are treasured faces,
Our household darlings, friends which are our own,
And with them favorite haunts and cherished places
So dear, they seem but made for us alone.

Old age remembers over misty distance
The brook the boy once loved, its scent of flowers,
Comes wafted from it yet with sweet persistence,
And builds again for him those vanished hours.

He feels once more his bare feet in the stubble,
His jointed fishing rod, his bat and ball,
Till, down from dreary days and thoughts of trouble
His pulses still sing music through it all.

[illegible], the seashore haunt of vague emotion,
Where his thoughts traveled on the gleaming wave,
Or rose in towering hopes, as smitten ocean
Shot jets of thunderous splendor round his cave.

The sacred path, which two once trod enchanted,
And now but one and he with faltering tread,
Feeling its grassy curves and hollows haunted
By watching eyes, whose light is with the dead.

Then there are favorite nooks of early travel,
When, dreaming idly on the summer grass,
We saw the Swiss cascades their threads unravel,
And evening strike across the shadowy pass.

Clitumnus' oxen wander by the plashing
Of Horace's dear fountain, and the bees
Pillage the heavy flowers in sunlight flashing,
While the doves murmur from the ilex trees.

Here Como's nightingale above the rowing
Sings his lament, and doubled in the lake
He sees himself and boat, and softly showing,
The clouds and distant hills a picture make.

Sorrento hangs there, crowned in memory's vision
Starry with clustered orange, and below
An azure dream world soft with indecision,
[illegible] and tangle round mosaics grow.

Such is the album memory fills with treasures,
Hid in the heart, where love doth keep the key,
There in possession pass life's pains and pleasures
Fresh and undying till it cease to be.

NOTICE!

TO DENTISTS AND THOSE REQUIRING THEIR SERVICES.

SAMUEL S. WHITE Manufacturer of the Paris Exhibition Gold Medal Teeth, and Dentists' Materials of every Description.

DENTAL DEPOTS

PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK. TRADE S S W MARK. BOSTON, CHICAGO.

THE Artificial Teeth, Dental Instruments, Gold-foil, &c., made by S. S. W. have been proved the best made anywhere, receiving 50 FIRST PREMIUMS—50—in competition with the manufacturers of the whole world, including the GRAND DIPLOMA OF HONOR from the VIENNA EXPOSITION.

An absolute test has demonstrated that the Teeth produced by us are one hundred per cent stronger than any others made.

Dentists and their patients would do well to keep in mind the axiom, "The best is the cheapest in the long run," and of no branch of industry is this principle so true as of Artificial Teeth, which when they break down, as the "cheap teeth" do, frequently cost a large proportion of the original price to repair.

Goods are frequently sold for ours which are counterfeit. Most of our manufactures are stamped with our Trade Mark Monogram, as shown at the head of this advertisement.

RHEUMATISM NEURALGIA

THE CLERGYMEN WERE CURED

of Chronic and Acute Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, Kidney and Nervous Diseases, after years of suffering, by taking Dr. Fitler's Vegetable Rheumatic Syrup—the scientific discovery of J. P. Fitler, M. D., a regular graduate physician, with whom we are personally acquainted, who has for 39 years treated these diseases exclusively with astonishing results. We believe it our Christian duty, after deliberation, to conscientiously request sufferers to use it, especially persons in moderate circumstances who cannot afford to waste money and time on worthless mixtures. As clergymen we seriously feel the deep responsibility resting on us in publicly endorsing this medicine. But our knowledge and experience of its remarkable merit fully justifies our action. Yours truly, &c. Rev. C. H. Ewing, Media, Penna., suffered sixteen years, became hopeless. Rev. Thomas Murphy, D. D., Frankford, Philadelphia. Rev. J. B. Davis, Hightstown, New Jersey. Rev. J. S. Buchanan, Clarence, Iowa. Rev. G. G. Smith, Pittsford, New York. Rev. Joseph Beggs, Falls Church, Philadelphia. Other testimonials from Senators, Governors, Judges, Congressmen, Physicians, &c., forwarded gratis with pamphlet explaining these diseases. One thousand dollars will be presented to any medicine for same diseases showing equal merit under test, or that can produce one-fourth as many living cures. Any person sending by letter a description of affliction will receive without charge (if considered curable) a legally signed guarantee, naming the exact number of bottles warranted to cure, agreeing to refund the money paid in case of a failure to cure. Price per bottle $1.50, can be bought as usual. Afflicted invited to write for medical advice on above diseases only. No charge for reply, which will contain much valuable information required by a lifetime practice. No compulsion to buy medicine. Address Dr. Fitler, Philadelphia. Printed explanations of the disease also furnished.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Maine, in Legislature assembled, on the first Wednesday of January, A. D. 1874.

The undersigned Petitioners, citizens of the County of Penobscot in said State, respectfully show that the proprietors of Oldtown Bridge were incorporated by the Legislature in the year 1827, by the name of the Oldtown Bridge Corporation, for the purpose of erecting and maintaining a Toll Bridge across the Penobscot river, at or near Oldtown Village, in Penobscot County, that by an additional act of the Legislature passed March 15th, 1830, a further time of two years was granted to said Proprietors to build and complete said Bridge, that said Proprietors, under said charter, built a toll bridge in accordance with its provisions, and opened the same for passengers and travel in the fall of 1831 and have maintained said bridge and taken toll for travel thereon to the present time; that by an act passed by the Legislature January 29th, 1829, it was enacted, that after the expiration of forty years from the time said Bridge was opened for passengers, said Bridge should revert to the State. And your Petitioners aver that said term of forty years has long since elapsed, and said Bridge of right now belongs to the State. They therefore pray your Honorable body to pass an act or resolve, making said Bridge a free bridge, and authorizing and instructing the Land Agent, or other suitable agent, to take possession of said bridge in behalf of the State, and keep the same in repair, and safe and convenient for public travel. And as in duty bound will ever pray.

EAST END KENDUSKEAG BRIDGE,

BANGOR, ME.

To the Honorable Mayor and Alderman of the City of Bangor.

Edwin Drew & Hiram Peavey, both of said Bangor, respectfully petition that a license to erect a stationary Steam Engine in said city, may be granted to them.

The building in which it is desired to erect said Engine, is a two story wooden structure, situated on the corner of Washington and French streets in said Bangor, on the westerly side of said French St.

The engine desired is of about 40 horse-power, the boiler to be 16 feet long and five feet in diameter, the furnace 4x5 feet and the smoke stack 70 feet in height.

The building aforesaid and the power therein to be placed, are to be used in the manufacture of axes and other implements of iron and wood. And your petitioners represent that such building and stationary steam engine may be erected and used for the purposes aforesaid, without endangering the property in the vicinity surrounding them, and therefore respectfully ask that the license prayed for may be granted, under such provisions for safety, as, in your judgement, are required.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS

For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs

No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, Boston

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

Convention between the United States of America and Denmark. Naturalization. Concluded July 20, 1872. Ratified January 22, 1873. Ratifications exchanged March 14, 1873. Proclaimed April 15, 1873.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a convention between the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Denmark, relative to the naturalization of citizens and subjects of the two countries, was concluded and signed at Copenhagen by their respective plenipotentiaries on the twentieth day of July, 1872, the original of which convention, being in the English and Danish languages, is word for word as follows:

The United States of America and His Majesty the King of Denmark being desirous to regulate the citizenship of the citizens of the United States of America who have emigrated or who may emigrate, from the United States of America to the Kingdom of Denmark, and of Danish subjects who have emigrated or who may emigrate, from the Kingdom of Denmark to the United States of America, have resolved to conclude a convention for that purpose, and have named as their plenipotentiaries, that is to say, the President of the United States of America, Michael J. Cramer, minister resident of the United States of America at Copenhagen, and His Majesty the King of Denmark, Otto Ditlev Baron Rosenorn Lehn, commander of Danebrog and Danebrogsmand, chamberlain, His Majesty's minister for foreign affairs, &c. &c. &c.

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers found to be in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following articles, to wit:

ARTICLE I.

Citizens of the United States of America who have become, or shall become, and are, naturalized according to law, within the Kingdom of Denmark as Danish subjects, shall be held by the United States of America to be in all respects and for all purposes Danish subjects, and shall be treated as such by the United States of America.

In like manner, Danish subjects who have become or shall become, and are naturalized, according to law, within the United States of America as citizens thereof, shall be held by the Kingdom of Denmark to be in all respects and for all purposes as citizens of the United States of America, and shall be treated as such by the Kingdom of Denmark.

ARTICLE II.

If any such citizen of the United States as aforesaid naturalized within the Kingdom of Denmark as a Danish subject, should renew his residence in the United States, the United States government may, on his application, and on such conditions as that government may see fit to impose, readmit him to the character and privileges of a citizen of the United States, and the Danish government shall not, in that case, claim him as a Danish subject on account of his former naturalization.

In like manner, if any such Danish subject, as aforesaid naturalized within the United States as a citizen thereof, should renew his residence within the Kingdom of Denmark, His Majesty's government may, on his application, and on such conditions as that government may think fit to impose, readmit him to the character and privileges of a Danish subject, and the United States government shall not, in that case, claim him as a citizen of the United States on account of his former naturalization.

ARTICLE III.

If, however, a citizen of the United States, naturalized in Denmark, shall renew his residence in the former country without the intent to return to that in which he was naturalized, he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization.

In like manner, if a Dane, naturalized in the United States, shall renew his residence in Denmark without the intent to return to the former country, he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization in the United States.

The intent not to return may be held to exist when a person naturalized in the one country shall reside more than two years in the other country.

ARTICLE IV.

The present convention shall go into effect immediately on or after the exchange of the ratifications, and shall continue in force for ten years. If neither party shall have given to the other six months' previous notice of its intention then to terminate the same, it shall further remain in force until the end of twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have given notice to the other of such intention.

ARTICLE V.

The present convention shall be ratified by the President of the United States of America, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof, and by His Majesty the King of Denmark, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Copenhagen as soon as may be, within eight months from the date hereof.

In witness whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto their respective seals.

Done at Copenhagen, the twentieth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

MICHAEL J. CRAMER.
O. D. ROSENORN-LEHN.

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States of America, have caused the said convention to be made public, to the end that the same, and every clause and article thereof, may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

SECOND ADDITIONAL CONVENTION to the postal convention of August 21, 1867, between the United States of America and Belgium.

The General Post Office of the United States and the Postal Administration of Belgium having recognized the propriety of reducing the rates of postage fixed by the convention of 21st August, 1867, and by the additional convention of 1st March, 1870, the undersigned, duly authorized by their respective governments, have agreed upon the following articles.

ARTICLE 1.

The international single rate upon letters exchanged in direct mails via Great Britain, between Belgium and the United States, is fixed as follows:

1. At 40 centimes for prepaid letters originating in Belgium.
2. At 8 cents for prepaid letters originating in the United States.

ARTICLE 2.

The international single rate for prepaid letters sent by the direct steamship lines to be established between the two countries, in conformity with article six of the convention of 21st August, 1867, is fixed at 30 centimes for letters sent from Belgium, and at 6 cents for letters sent from the United States, of which 10 centimes (2 cents) shall represent the sea postage.

ARTICLE 3.

When one of the two contracting offices shall consider it advisable to exchange closed mails with a foreign country to which these offices may respectively serve as intermediaries by the direct packets which the other contracting office shall have established between Belgium and the United States, it shall pay to the other office, for the maritime transportation of said mails between Belgian ports and those of the United States, a fixed rate of

1. Three cents (15 centimes) per 30 grams for letters.
2. Ten cents (50 centimes) per kilogram for other correspondence.

And the same rates of sea postage are also fixed for the closed mails conveyed by any line of direct mail steamers between the two countries.

ARTICLE 4.

The present convention shall be considered as additional to those of August 21, 1867, and March 1, 1870, and shall take effect from the date agreed upon by the two administrations.

Done in duplicate and signed in Washington this 9th day of May, 1873.

WASHINGTON, May 12, 1873.

CONVENTION between the United States of America and the Orange Free State. Friendship, Commerce and Extradition. Concluded December 22, 1871. Ratification advised by Senate April 24, 1872. Ratified by President April 27, 1872. Ratified by Volksraad of Orange Free State May 10, 1872. Ratifications exchanged at Washington August 18, 1873. Proclaimed August 23, 1873.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a general convention of friendship, commerce and extradition between the United States of America and the Orange Free State was concluded and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries, at Bloemfontein, on the twenty-second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, which general convention is word for word as follows:

GENERAL CONVENTION OF FRIENDSHIP, COMMERCE AND EXTRADITION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE ORANGE FREE STATE.

The United States of America and the Orange Free State, equally animated by the desire to draw more closely the bonds of friendship which so happily exist between the two republics, as well as to augment, by all the means at their disposal, the commercial intercourse of their respective citizens, have mutually resolved to conclude a general convention of friendship, commerce and extradition.

For this purpose they have appointed as their plenipotentiaries, to wit: The President of the United States, Willard W. Edgcomb, special agent of the United States, and their consul at the Cape of Good Hope, and the president of the Orange Free State, Friedrich Kaufman Hohne, gov. secy, who, after a communication of their respective full powers, have agreed to the following articles:

ARTICLE 1.

The citizens of the United States of America and the citizens of the Orange Free State shall be admitted and treated, upon a footing of reciprocal equality in the two countries, where such admission and treatment shall not conflict with the constitutional or legal provisions of the contracting parties. No pecuniary or other more burdensome condition shall be imposed upon their residence, than upon the citizens of the country where they reside, nor any condition whatever to which the latter shall not be subject.

The foregoing privileges, however, shall not extend to the enjoyment of political rights.

ARTICLE 2.

The citizens of one of the two countries residing or established in the other shall be free from personal military service; but they shall be liable to the pecuniary or other contributions which may be required, by way of compensation, from citizens of the country where they reside, who are exempt from the said service.

No higher impost, under whatever name shall be exacted from the citizens of one of the two countries residing or established in the other than shall be levied upon citizens of the country in which they reside, nor any contribution whatever to which the latter shall not be liable.

In case of war or of the seizure or occupation of property for public purposes, the citizens of one of the two countries residing or established in the other shall be placed upon an equal footing with the citizens of the country in which they reside with respect to indemnities for damages they may have sustained.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 1, 1873

Dr. F. W. Kinsman, Augusta, Maine.

Two years ago last September I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs [illegible] [illegible] with a cough dry and very [illegible] [illegible] various kinds of syrup recommended by friends, which reduced my condition, and was advised to try [illegible] Whiskey, and then [illegible] I took three quarts of the [illegible] [illegible] then commenced taking Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, of which I took several bottles, [illegible] and four bottles [illegible] other medicine, continually growing weaker, losing [illegible] about giving up all hope of any relief [illegible] was marked by my family, and about every person that I met [illegible].

But to a change of place. One day last winter a circular was thrown into my office [illegible] Adamson's Botanic Balsam (think God) [illegible] [illegible] very carefully, I put on my [illegible] went for it. I at last found it, and I began taking it regularly and as per directions. Before I had used half a bottle I noticed a change. I then purchased six bottles, and [illegible] went through four of them continually growing better, resting all night, cough entirely gone, and to-day I can do as much business in one hour as I could in one day eight months ago. I am also gaining in flesh, and generally speaking, feel good all over. This all comes by use of Adamson's Balsam.

I invariably recommend it to every body similarly afflicted, and can this day give you the name and residence of at least fifty persons who have been cured of coughs [illegible] by its use. I also urged a friend of mine who has been using [illegible] this article of his stock. He did so and [illegible] bottles in less than a fortnight, and I have not heard of any one yet dissatisfied.

I would as soon think of having property uninsured against loss by fire as to keep house without a good supply of Adamson's Balsam in my closet.

With assurance of my highest regard I am gratefully yours, &c.

EMERY COOK.

BANGOR, March 13, 1873.

FRANK W. KINSMAN, Esq.

Dear Sir—We are happy to be able to inform you that out of over 2000 bottles of your Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam, which we have sold over our counter during the last past three months, we have not heard of one solitary case of complaint against its [illegible] good results but [illegible] [illegible] speak of it at all, have spoken of its merit in the highest terms of satisfaction.

Respectfully yours,
WARREN L. ALDEN & CO

Read What the Doctors Say

We have known Dr. F. W. Kinsman of Augusta, Me., for the past twenty years, as a successful druggist, have examined the formula of his Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam. We regard it as a very useful remedy. Many of our friends have tested it and all pronounce it the best remedy they ever used for coughs, colds, asthma and diseases of the lungs.

There is no disease with which our country is afflicted, which sweeps off annually so many victims as that fell destroyer to the human race,

CONSUMPTION.

It is estimated that nearly 175,000 die annually with this terrible disease. Consumption in its confirmed and incipient stages, Coughs, Asthma, and affections of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, Croup, &c., form by far the most fatal class of disease known in our land.

Yet even these may be effectually cured by means of the simple, yet wonderful remedy that nature has furnished.

We have carefully combined the medical properties of these nature's healing extracts of,

BARKS, ROOTS, and HERBS

ADAMSON'S

BOTANIC COUGH BALSAM

The children like it and they tell
It cures their Colds and makes them well
And mothers seek the store to try it,
With hundreds who desire to buy it.

It is Pleasant to Take.

And Works Like a Charm.

BOSTON, August 27th, 1873.

F. W. Kinsman, Esq.—Dear Sir—With pleasure we order five gross Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam—the sale has commenced very surely showing conclusively that the merit has won the day and that your preparation is taking the lead over the many bottles of trash that now flood the market.

From G. C. Goodwin & Co., New England Patent Medicine Warehouse, 38 Hanover St., Boston, May 14th, 1872.

Mr. F. W. Kinsman—Dear Sir—We have had in all about 25 gross Adamson's Balsam, and have retailed nearly 40 dozen of it over our retail counter. Parties have been in and bought it the second time, and all pronounce it one of the best medicines in the market for coughs and colds. Some of our men have used it and say it is the best remedy they have tried.

Dr. Huntington says—I have known Dr. Kinsman's Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam for some time, and I regard it far before any medicine of the kind. I have used it in my practice and in my own family with complete success.

Dr. F. W. Kinsman.—Dear Sir—It gives me great pleasure to say that Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam cured me of a severe cold to which I have been subject, especially during the winter months, and I have in many instances recommended it to my friends, and all have been benefitted by its use. We think it has no equal as a cough mixture.

Yours truly, U. L. PETTINGILL.

SOMETHING NEW

IN

Wall Papers.

We would call the particular attention of the public to our latest and handsomest styles of Wall Paper, surpassing anything of the kind heretofore offered or manufactured. We have recently placed one of the most elegant patterns of this paper upon the walls of the Reception Parlor connected with Dr. Babcock's Dental Rooms, and taking advantage of Dr. B.'s permission, would invite all those who contemplate a purchase of this nature, to call at his rooms and examine it before selecting elsewhere.
